

TAPESTRY SINGERS

Austin Women's Chorus

2016 Scholarship Application

About the Scholarship

Tapestry Singers (Austin Women's Chorus) is a non-auditioned chorus for women celebrating the joy of music through song, fellowship and service. Founded in 1987 by Ruth Huber, Tapestry Singers provides women throughout the Austin area the opportunity to sing together and to become part of something uniquely enriching. Members work together through rehearsals and vocal workshops to perform uplifting concerts for the local community and beyond.

Tapestry Singers encourages and supports women of all backgrounds and abilities, enables women to gain the skills to perform confidently and successfully, and fosters the well-being that comes through sharing in the experience of making music together.

This $1,000 annual scholarship is awarded to a woman who best demonstrates her love of, and ability in, vocal music, whether she plans to pursue an education or career in music or not. The winner should have a passion for song and exemplify the principles and joyful spirit upheld by Tapestry Singers.
